

Segment profit (in millions)
Three months ending	2008	2007
Infrastructure	$ 2,588	$ 2,208
Commercial Finance	1,158	1,440
GE Money	995	1,223
Healthcare	528	637
NBC Universal	712	691
Industrial	300	358

Liabilities and equity
Borrowings	$547.8	$514.1
Other liabilities & minority interest	$133.3	$129.7

In the SEC filing, a condensed statement of earnings:
(consolidated)

Sales of goods and services	$24,322	$ 21,515
Total revenues	$42,243	$ 39,200
(separated)
GE	$27,310	$ 25,686	6%
Financial Service	$18,053	$ 17,485	3%

Where the bottom line is most effected, and therefore look for cuts from GE and other changes, as they started to do last year in the Healthcare leasing section, is in the cost of sales, administration, interest, and provision for losses. The full statements follow the story, but for brevity sake:

Total costs and expenses:
Consolidated	$37,053	$33,040

(separated)

GE	$22,191	$20,118	10 %
Financial services	$15,516	$13,469	15%

The financial statements show loss from continued operations, particularly in the financial service sector, which income tax provisions also come to the bottom line.

The last financial statement in the SEC filing is a condensed statement of financial condition.

Borrowings are up in the Financial Services:

(in millions)	3/31/08	12/31/07
	$536.7	$500.9

There is your profit being off, not including other higher costs.
