12:00 – 1:00 PM  LUNCH

1:00 – 2:00 PM  STATE OF THE INDUSTRY
Mark McClanahan, Equipment Data Associates (EDA)
This session will include current trends: what’s hot, what’s not and where is the industry growing? EDA will describe equipment financing activity based on their UCC filings database and you will learn Equipment financing volumes for agriculture, construction, lift trucks, logging, machine tools, printing, transportation and woodworking. Plus, number of end-users that are financing equipment, including a breakdown by new versus used equipment.
2:15 – 3:15 PM
EXPLORING ALTERNATIVE FINANCING SOLUTIONS
Panel will include: Kristof Anderson-Tsang, LoanMe, Greg Dyson, Amerisource, Michael Rabil, Funding Circle & Jeff Schubert, RapidAdvance

This session will introduce the equipment professional to a myriad of alternative forms of financing and show how these products can benefit both the equipment finance professional and their clients. Each of the lenders on this panel has a different solution for helping a client’s cash flow. They will highlight opportunities for increasing the broker’s revenue and enhancing the overall client relationship by positioning the broker as a single source for all of their client’s financial needs, while simultaneously providing additional options to help close more equipment deals. Presenters will be given 10 minutes each to discuss the products in a purely informational format and ten minutes for questions will be provided.

3:45 – 5:00 PM
PACKAGING FOR SUCCESS/ANALYZING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Jaime Kaneshina, CLFP, BPB, The Cambridge Capital Group & Phil Wellington, Banc of California, N.A.

This session will provide comprehensive, educational information to assist you in closing more transactions by teaching you to prepare solid packages and submitting them to funders in formats that will better guarantee approvals. Topics will include help in identifying funder specialties, required documents and formats. The second portion of this session will provide detailed information to help you become more knowledgeable in analyzing financial statements.
