	D—Private Label Program —offers the broker or discounter a contract that allows them to put their name on it, primarily for marketing purposes.
	E—In addition to accepting broker business, has "in house" salesmen who go "direct" to customers and/or equipment vendors. If there is confusion such as the entity is a subsidiary or separate operation, but under the same financial control, it is best to state, "yes," while the sales team may be "separate," it is in reality part of the organization. This is very common in the leasing industry to have both sets of "on premise" and "off premise" sales and should not be viewed as a negative to each "divisions" efforts.
