

Golf Opportunities

Our Pacific Coast itinerary presents the perfect opportunity to combine both golf and jazz with cruising! If you're a golfer, come join us and play some of the finest courses on the West Coast!

We'll golf most days, hang out with our awesome musicians throughout the cruise, visit fantastic port cities, plus each night you will experience a private and very intimate concert with world renown artists Michael Paulo, Gregg Karukas, Ray Parker, Jr., Ira Nepus, Garin Poliahu and David Inamine!

We've reserved space at the following top-rated courses. Let us know if you would like to reserve your spot to play at any or all courses. Jazz, golf and cruise.....we can't think of a better combination!

TCP Harding Park - San Francisco, California - May 6th

This municipal golf course, owned by the city and county of San Francisco, has been honored as the "#13 Municipal Golf Course in the United States" as well as the "#24 Best Course to Play in California" by Golfweek magazine. Golf Digest magazine has also named it as "One of the Best Places to Play"

- Opened 91 year ago
- In 2010 it became a PGA Tour course
- Several PGA Tour events are scheduled for play, including the 2020 PGA Championship and the 2025 President's Cup
- Situated on a gently rolling peninsula on the shores of Lake Merced

$250.00 per person, based on a minimum of 20 golfers. Includes: green fees, cart fee, gratuity and taxes, luggage storage at course and transportation to the ship after golf. Practice range is not included, cost is $7 per person.

Washington National Golf Club - Seattle, Washington - May 9

One of the premier golf courses in the Pacific Northwest, located just 30 minutes from Seattle, Washington National Golf Club is also the proud home to the University of Washington's Men's and Women's golf teams.

- Built in 2000
- Has hosted several NCAA regional championships
- Designed by award-winning architect John Fought
- Ranked among the "The 101 Best Golf Experiences in the West" by Fairways & Greens (2006)
- Ranked as the 5th "Most Challenging Course in Washington State" by USGA (2004-05)

$185 per person, based on a minimum of 20 golfers. Includes: round-trip transportation to/from ship, green fee, cart fee, practice range, and bag drop service.

Bear Mountain Resort - Victoria, British Columbia - May 10

Co-designed by Jack Nicklaus and his son Steve, the Mountain Course at Bear Mountain is set in the foothills of Mount Finlayson and strikes the perfect balance between playability and a truly challenging golf experience for golfers of all skill levels.

- Panoramic Views of mountain, city & ocean
- This course has a 19th tee, which is an extra par 3
- Host of the Telus World Skins Game

$235 per person, based on minimum of 20 golfers. Includes: round-trip transportation to/from ship, green fee, GPS equipped cart fee, range balls and bottled water.

Northlands Golf Course - Vancouver, British Columbia - May 11

Considered one of British Columbia's premier golf destinations, Northlands

Golf Course offers exceptional service, outstanding course condition, amazing views and unbelievable value.

- Ranked among the best in the country
- One of Golf Digest's "Best New Golf Courses" in 1998
- Winner of Pacific Golf Magazine's Readers Choice Award for "Favourite Course".
- Well formulated mix of challenging holes, friendly scenic downhill vistas and strategically located natural hazards

$150 per person, based on minimum of 14 golfers. Includes: transportation to golf course and return to cruise port, green fees, cart fees, practice facility (hitting nets, practice bunker, chipping area & putting green - no driving range available). Luggage storage at the port or court will be arranged for an additional charge.

Prices given are based on a minimum number of golfers. If minimum number is not reached, prices will be adjusted and transportation may not be included.

Cruise reservations must be booked through Divine Jazz Cruise to join us for golf and attend our private jazz shows.