ORDER

This cause coming to be heard on status on December 5, 2007 before Magistrate Judge Jeffrey Cole, the parties having been given due notice and having agreed to the terms set forth in this order without waiving any rights, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The parties consent to jurisdiction before Magistrate Judge Jeffrey Cole.
2. The Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") Motion for Preliminary Injunction is withdrawn.
3. IFC Credit Corporation ("IFC") shall deposit into an escrow account with interest accruing to IFC any lease payments received on or after January 1, 2008 from the NorVergence, Inc. lessees on the Voluntary Payment chart provided by IFC to the FTC on December 5, 2007, until further Order of this Court.
4. IFC will deposit an additional $5,000.00 per month into the same interest bearing escrow account on the tenth (10th) day of each month beginning in January, 2008. The $5,000.00 payment shall also be held in escrow until further Order of this Court. The amount of this deposit is subject to further discussion between the parties and the Court.
5. IFC shall produce to the FTC on a monthly basis on or before the tenth (10th) day of each month updated charts of payments received from the NorVergence, Inc. lessees after December 1, 2007 similar to the charts provided by IFC to the FTC and tendered to the Court on December 5, 2007.

6. IFC will file a Motion seeking a stay of all NorVergence litigation relating to IFC pending in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois before Judge James Murray. IFC will request that the cases be stayed until May 7, 2008, one month after the trial, as set forth below, of the instant case. IFC will request that Judge Murray hear its Emergency Motion to Stay on or before December 10, 2007.
7. Trial in the instant matter is set for April 7, 2008, without further notice.
8. The matter is set for further status on December 12, 2007 at 9:00 a.m.
